CONDITIONAL UNIVERSITY ADMISSION

In order to apply for student visa international students require a conditional university admission from a German university.

To make your journey to German as smooth as possible our team in Germany will apply for university admission on your behalf!

Three steps to success:

01

Send your educational documents to us digitally for a first screening.

02

After receiving confirmation from our team, provide us attested copies of your educational documents.

03

Wait until you receive your individual conditional offer.

While waiting for the conditional university admission, you can easily complete a full German level through our German Online Classes!

GERMAN STUDENT VISA

Once you received your conditional university admission and your personal invitation documents, you are ready to apply for your German Student Visa.

Our specialists will help you to prepare for your student visa application through our Pre-Departure-Training.

While waiting for the German Student Visa to be issued, you can complete another German level through our German Online Classes!
